We Are Church Together: Goodbye, Farewell, and Amen

In February 1983, the final M*A*S*H episode aired to one of the largest television audiences ever. The 2 ½ hour movie chronicled the transition from war to peace of many of its main characters. The episode was titled Goodbye, Farewell, and Amen.

I remembered this title and I thought it would be a fitting one to use for this time of transition. How we say “goodbye” to each other matters. In fact, many church leaders will tell you that healthy grieving prepares us for healthy beginnings.

In 1969, the late Elizabeth Kubler-Ross, wrote a book titled “On Death and Dying.” In that classic, best-selling book, she outlined five stages in the grieving process. Denial, Anger, Bargaining, Depression, and Acceptance. Over the past couple of weeks since Deborah and I announced that we are accepting a new call, I have heard from many people whose emotions are all over the map and all of them are perfectly natural. Some have been in denial, saying, “You’re not really leaving now, are you?” Some have been angry saying, “I feel hurt because you are leaving just when things were picking up.” Some have been bargaining saying, “Is there anything we could do to make you stay?” Some have been deeply saddened by the news, while others have said, “I am happy for the two of you, but I am sad for us.” Again, all of these are normal and natural reactions to saying goodbye. Kubler-Ross’s book helped many describe what is going on in the grief process, but even Kubler-Ross, when she herself was dying, said that grief is much wilder, and more unmanageable, than the five stages she laid out. I mention all of this to you so that you honor whatever it is that you are feeling. It is ok.

So how do we say goodbye? In the Church we do so through ritual, communal recognition, and individual conversation.

Healthy grieving

Ritual – Deacon Connie Schmucker, Assistant to the Bishop for the Florida-Bahamas Synod will be with us in worship on Sunday, February 26. She will lead us in a rite of Thanksgiving at the Conclusion of a Call.

Communal Recognition – On Sunday, February 19, following worship we will have our pre-Lent Shrove Sunday brunch to which all are invited. During that time there will be an opportunity to share with each other some words of thanksgiving and gratitude to each other.

Individual Conversation – Throughout the month of February, let us find time to say our goodbyes, whether that is in brief conversations over the phone, or in passing on Sunday, or contact Pastor Tim to schedule a time to chat. All of these are more personal ways to say our goodbyes.

Healthy beginnings

What are some ways that Trinity as a congregation can demonstrate to clergy candidates that you are a sound and healthy congregation? There is little that one can do alone, but there is a lot that all of you can do together. And much of it comes down to stewardship. How the people of Trinity use their Time, Talent, and Treasures.

Time – Whether you are a long-time member, newer member, snowbird or other, commit to coming to worship (unless you are feeling ill or are ill) every single week. Remember, will not only be interviewing prospective pastors, but they will be interviewing you as well. They will look at attendance records to see how well people have been attending worship. Besides, we are now on camera. Prospective pastors will be looking at your worship videos. Do they see a sanctuary pleasantly full? Or do they see a sanctuary mostly empty? What they see is up to you.

Talent – We all know that families are both functional and dysfunctional, but regardless of how we function, we often step up to help one of our family members who are in need and help them out. Congregations are much like families in this respect, so could you help out the family here? We have a need each and every week for greeters, ushers, readers, assisting ministers, altar guild, communion visitors, and we have need for people to serve on the ministry teams of Hospitality, Outreach, Praise, Education, Property, and Stewardship. If you don't know who to contact to serve or ask questions about what the task all entails, you can always contact Mary Parada in the Church Office and she can get you in touch with the right person who can answer your questions. For many things, you can also sign up on the clipboards on the Servant Sign-Up table just outside the Church Office door. It is that simple and Trinity needs you. Prospective pastors will look at past bulletins and they want to see many people who are serving, not just the same names over and over again.

Treasure – You are a generous people! Continue to be! Prospective pastors will be looking at a congregation's financial giving as a sign of congregational health. Jesus said, "Where your treasure is there your heart will be also." (Matthew 6:21) The opposite is also true. Where your heart is there is where you will put your treasure. During interims, people often give less because they are unsure about the ministry. That is human nature. But is Trinity just a gathering of a bunch of humans who act like other humans, or are we a new creation through the death and resurrection of Christ? If it is the latter, then our giving should remain the same or increase. That shows prospective candidates that your mission comes from God regardless of whether you have an interim pastor or a called pastor. So, continue to give generously. Give via cash, check, credit card, stocks, IRAs, and please, please, please remember to put Trinity in your estate plans. Trinity is in better financial shape now because of Grace DeVoe's estate and others who have left considerable gifts, thanks be to God!

Finally, thank you. Thank you for the past three years of doing ministry together. Please pray for Deborah and me as we continue to serve in Christ's Church and we will continue to pray for you as you enter the interim and call processes. Thank you.

Goodbye, farewell, and Amen.
Pastor Tim and Deborah

We Are Church Together:
Communion Visitation Help Needed

Do you have a few hours a month that you could give to help the family out? We have a number of homebound members who desire holy communion monthly. Michael Lawrence has stepped up to coordinate this ministry, but he needs your help. We have 13 homebound members and only 4 communion visitors. We could easily use 4-5 more. If you are interested, please contact Michael at (410) 917-4452; lawoptic@verizon.net. Thank you!

Offerings

Contributions to Trinity are always greatly appreciated. If using a third party (example: Wells Fargo Clearing Services, Fidelity Charitable, etc.) to make your contribution, please make sure that your name and how you would like the funds to be distributed are clearly stated on the check memo. This information helps to ensure that contribution statements are accurate. Thank you in advance for your help! Please contact the office with questions.

Thank you for your Christmas generosity!

On behalf of Cantor Brian, Office Administrator Mary, Custodian Laura, and me, Pastor Tim, we thank you for your generous contribution to the Staff Christmas Fund. We see this as a sign of appreciation for all the work we do for Trinity throughout the year. We are deeply humbled and truly thankful. Bless you!

We had a very successful Christmas season thanks to the generosity of members and friends at Trinity. We successfully fulfilled holiday wishes for 17 children and their families from the Giving Tree. We also would like to acknowledge Doris Will and the work she put into obtaining a Thrivent grant of $250, which she contributed towards the Giving Tree. Thank you for your time and efforts to helping the Children of Chisholm!

In addition, $1,038.34 was donated towards food for needy families. These contributions will be given to deserving families in the form of giftcards during the holidays. We are so very thankful to everyone who was able to contribute.

We would like thank Rebecca Sawyer for the 17 quilts that she made for the children of Chisholm. Each child received gifts from the Giving Tree in addition to a beautiful handmade quilt. Through the help of all who participated, we were able to create warm and happy holiday memories for many families within our community.

We would like to extend a special thank you to Doris Will for her work in obtaining a Thrivent grant which covers the cost of the hand sanitizer kept in the pews of the church. We thank you so very much for your work to keep our congregation healthy and safe!

Thank you to the choir, bell choir and Brian for the outstanding music that they provide for us each week. They are such an important part of our Church service and are truly appreciated. The congregation is moved by them as witnessed in their clapping during the service over recent weeks. We want them to know just how much we love and appreciate them!

Transition Questions?

Do you have questions about the Call process? The Florida Bahama Synod has a very detailed guide that provides information about every step of the process to finding a new pastor. You can read more at the Florida-Bahamas Synod’s website: <https://fbsynod.com/resources/transitions/>. Rest assured that the Council, and once appointed, the Call Committee, will be in regular contact to keep the congregation up to date with the call process. Please use this time of transition to hold the congregation of Trinity in your prayers, along with the Synod and other members of clergy who will assist us.

New Ministry Opportunity

Rebecca Sawyer is using her natural gift of creating beautiful quilts to bless others. She aspires to share quilts with friends, members and future friends of Trinity who may be in need of comfort. Her hope is to provide hope and warmth while reminding people that they are loved. Judy Driesbaugh has partnered with Rebecca with this ministry by delivering quilts. If you have a suggestion for someone to receive a quilt, please contact Judy Driesbaugh or the office.

Synod Assembly 2023

We would like to extend a thank you to Karen Wenrich and Judy Driesbaugh for stepping up to take responsibility for representing Trinity in voting at the Synod Assembly. This will take place in Orlando this June 8-10. Our voting members will elect a bishop and also people to serve on the Synod Council and the Consultation Committee. Additional information will be provided by the Synod Council relating to the election of the bishop as we move closer to the period leading up to the assembly.

Deborah Gelerter will be ordained on Sunday, February 12, 2023 at 3 p.m. at St. Timothy Lutheran Church in Tarpon Springs. We will have the ordination live streamed in the Fellowship Hall for those who cannot attend in person. Refreshments will be provided. Please join us to celebrate “in spirit” with Deborah on her accomplishments!
